Arab Blockade Lines Hold Firm

Jews Fail To Reach Holy City

Major Convoy Thrown Back

TEL AVIV—(UP)—A major Jewish convoy attempting to break through the Arab blockade to besieged Jerusalem has been thrown back with heavy losses but is reforming for a second try, Arab reports said today.

These accounts said 1,500 Jewish troops attacked Latroun on the road to Jerusalem to divert attention while a powerful convoy attempted to drive through the Bab El Wad sector 12 miles west of Jerusalem.

Eight hundred of the attacking Jews were killed and large numbers captured by Arab legion troops shifting from Jerusalem to Latroun, the Arab reports said.

The battered trucks of the convoy, turned back at Bab El Wad by Arab shellfire, were reported reforming in the hills around Hulda, five miles southwest of Latroun.

Arab reports said reinforcements had arrived and the Jews appeared ready to make a second effort to smash through the Arab blockade.

A Trans-Jordan communique claimed, however, that the Arabs had installed a second road block on the Jerusalem highway by capturing the dominating Abu Gosh radar station seven miles west of Jerusalem.

U. N. Will Study Arab Rejection

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(INS)—Rejection by Arab states of an unconditional Palestine truce is being weighed today by the United Nations security council which may be asked to take strong measures and perhaps invoke sanctions.

The Arab rejection was coupled with a demand for a new solution of the Palestine problem which will discard partition. The council was asked to submit a new plan of settlement within 48 hours.

The United States and Soviet delegates considered the Arab rejection and the accompanying demand serious enough to cause them to consult their respective governments.

The 11-nation body adjourned last night without action or comment on the Arab rejection evasion of its cease-fire edict.

Jews Claim Gains Near Jerusalem

JERUSALEM —(INS)— Counter-attacking Jewish forces claimed important gains today in fighting at and near Jerusalem.

An Israeli communique announced that Jewish troops reoccupied the settlement of Ramat Rachel, between Jeerusalem and Bethlehem, and drove out Arab forces from the Marelias convent, about three miles north of Bethlehem.

A Haganah radio broadcast from the Holy City claimed that in a night attack the Israel fighters blew up an important Arab post in the Sheikh Jarrah quarter, and set afire Arab strongpoints in the Swedish school near the Damascus gate.

Two Trapped Deep In Mine

SCRANTON, Pa.—(AP)—Spurred by tappings and shouts from a mine chamber 200 feet underground, rescue crews dug frantically today to reach two men trapped by a fatal cavein.

The workers already had recovered the body of William Ambrose, 53, of Avoca, crushed under a rock fall last night at the No. 11 shaft of Heidelberg colliery. Two men were working with Ambrose when the accident occurred, and the shouts this morning spurred hopes both might be alive.

Miners who worked through the night digging away tons of coal and rock that closed off the underground chamber said they believed the shouts came from Anthony Brezak, 34, also of Acosa, who had gone into the mine with Ambrose and Julius Pitarra, 27, of DuPont.

QUINS TO CELEBRATE

CALLENDER, Ont.—(AP)—The Dionne quintuplets will be 14 years old tomorrow — weighing 621 pounds all told. They will take the day off from school and share a five-layer birthday cake.

Crime Comic Magazines Face Purge

AKRON — (INS) — Akron police and Summit county officials began a study today of crime comic magazines in a drive to purge the reading material from newsstands.

Akron Police Chief Thomas F. Lynett and Summit Juvenile Judge Bernard J. Roetzel said a prohibited list would be compiled after a check of newsstands is made. Chief Lynett added:

"We are then going to write the distributors and request them to withdraw the books from the Summit county market. I am sure they will work with us."

'Voice' Gets In Bad With Legislators

Double-Barreled Inquiry Opened

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Sputteringly mad senators called the state department on the carpet today for a full story behind Voice of America broadcasts they labeled as sabotage, slander and libel.

Angered congressmen ordered a double-barreled investigation today into the broadcasts.

Senator Ferguson, the Republicans' top investigator, will head one by the Senate.

Rep. Chenoweth (R-Colo) will direct one for the House.

Sample broadcast excerpts:

"New England was founded by hypocrisy and Texas by sin."

Nevada's two main cities compete with each other because "people get married in Las Vegas and divorced in Reno."

From Senator Hatch (D-NM): "Drivel, nonsense and downright falsehoods."

From Senator Ferguson (R-Mich): A demand Congress rescind the $27,000,000 appropriation it voted for next year to finance the world-wide radio programs intended to portray the democratic way of life in this country.

From Senator Capehart (R-Ind): A promise to introduce a resolution calling for a top-to-bottom congressional inquiry into the state department's operation of the information program.

From the National Broadcasting company, which handled the programs under contract with the department: the writer who turned out the scripts has been fired and the supervisor who reviewed them has been "relieved of his post."

This, however, failed to dispel the storm.

It broke in the Senate late yesterday when Capehart read excerpts from a series of programs broadcast late in 1947 and early this year to South and Central America. The Indiana senator said they purported to deal with life and history in the 48 states as seen through the eyes of two travelers.

Stamp Honors 4 Clergymen

MARIETTA —(INS)— A 23-year-old ex-marine left Marietta college with his family today on a journey to Washington, D. C. There he will be present at the first sale of a stamp commemorating his father's World War II heroism.

Wyatt R. Fox is the son of one of the four clergymen who went down with a troop transport in the North Atlantic during the war. The four men of religion—two ministers, a priest and a rabbi—gave their lifebelts to soldiers.

Woman's Body Found

Comes to Surface At Charles Mill

The body of Mrs. Mary Katherine Allen, 24, of Cleveland, who was drowned Saturday in the Charles Mill reservoir, was found early today, floating on the surface of the lake, sheriff's deputies reported.

Kenneth Wassem, operator of Wassem's Boat service, said the body was discovered about 8 a. m. At the time, two boats were in the water for an early morning search, which started at 6 a. m.

In one search boat were Wassem and Michael Carlin, uncle of the drowned woman. Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Schneider of Mansfield were in the other. Schneider is secretary-treasurer of Local 40, of the Teamsters' union.

The body was taken to Gilbert's funeral home in Ashland. Since the body was found on the Ashland county side of the lake, Ashland authorities took charge.

The Gilbert funeral home said the body would be taken late today to the Reidy funeral home, Cleveland. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

SEARCHED 4 DAYS

Search for the drowned woman started Saturday afternoon and continued through yesterday.

In addition to dragging operations, divers, employed by Dennis Carling, father of the drowning victim, searched the lake bottom. They worked from Monday through Wednesday.

Mrs. Allen was drowned Saturday after a rescue craft tipped over a few minutes after she had been rescued when a rowboat capsized.

Move Delays Gandhi Case

NEW DELHI—(INS)—The trial of nine Indian nationalists accused in the murder plot that took the life of Mohandas K. Gandhi was adjourned for a week today shortly after its opening.

The adjournment was granted in response to a defense request for more time to prepare its case. Only brief preliminaries took place in the carefully-guarded courtroom in historic Redfort before the judge delayed the case till June 3.

It is understood that Nahuram Vinayak, Godse, 25-year-old Hindu nationalist who is being tried as Gandhi's actual assassin, will attempt to conduct his own defense.

Godse was seized by police after pumping three bullets into Gandhi's stomach Jan. 30 while the Hindu leader was on his way to a prayer meeting.

Four Drown In One Day

CANTON —(INS)— Stark county officials mapped new safety enforcement campaigns today following the death by drowning of four persons yesterday.

The alarming series of drownings was climaxed with the death of two boys, John Terry McCance, 15, and James Shortland jr., 12, in a strip mine pit near Canton late yesterday.

William L. Herbst, 52, of Canton, drowned earlier while fishing at Tappan dam in Harrison county and David L. Gruber lost his life when he fell into a creek near neighboring Brewster.

GOING UP—An elephant helps erect the six-pole big top for the Cole Bros. circus at the Fairground. The skeleton of the huge tent was about completed when this picture was taken early this morning. Elephants drag the canvas bundles to the proper places under network of poles and ropes.

Show Here For 2 Performances

Early-Risers Watch Cole Circus Unload

Eager youngsters and scores of adults who are still young on circus day lined West Sixth and Springmill streets shortly after sunrise today to see the Cole Bros. show move onto the Fairground.

First section of the big show arrived from Marion before sunrise and by 7 a. m., poles for the big top were in place in the race track oval at the show ground. A circus bus hauled workers from the train to the Fairground.

The circus was to give a matinee performance at 2:15 and will present the evening show at 8. Doors open an hour before the performances.

Huge trucks, sometimes pulling four and five wagons, led the parade of equipment from the trains to the Fairground. The wagons were rolled from the train near Union station.

The Fairground was dry today, providing ideal working conditions for the crews which usually find a sea of mud when they come to Mansfield.

POLES OFF FIRST

First off the train this morning were the wagons loaded with tent poles and the big trucks carrying the circus power plant.

While men were erecting the big top, the mess tent was going up, and the chefs soon had breakfast ready.

Three monster caterpillar tractors, moving about the lot like big beetles, placed the poles and wagons and pulled the heavy rolls of canvas out of the wagons.

While automatic stake drivers are used for the heavier driving tasks, crews of five or six men still take their places around the stakes and swing their hammers, counting as they drive the stakes.

The Cole show, claiming some of the outstanding acts in the circus world, offers a large menagerie which will be open for inspection before the performance.

Favors Toll Roads

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Federal aid toll roads are needed in Ohio to relieve a "critical transportation problem," Ohio State Senator Ralph A. Winter of Medina told the House public works committee yesterday. He urged approval of a bill to permit federal aid grants for toll bridges, highways and tunnels.

Start Making Ice For Show

Workmen today began installing an ice "stage" at the Coliseum in preparation for the opening tomorrow night of "Hollywood on Ice," which opens Friday night.

More than two miles of steel pipe were being laid over a waterproof covering on the Coliseum floor.

Through the pipe will be pumped a refrigerated brine solution which will enable freezing the hard, glassy surface upon which the show's performers will glide, whirl and skate through their routines for six nights and a Sunday matinee.

A refrigerator condenser will lower the temperature of the brine solution to less than eight degrees fahrenheit before pumps send the solution through the 12,844 feet of pipe. The spaces between the pipes are filled with seven tons of fine sand and sawdust, and as the refrigeration pipes lower the temperature of the sand-sawdust mixture, water is sprinkled on lightly.

As the top surface freezes, more and more water is added until the required surface is provided. Show officials said it takes about 10 hours of sprinkling to complete the ice rink.

Brannan Given Committee's OK

WASHINGTON —(UP)— The Senate agriculture committee today unanimously approved the nomination of Charles F. Brannan to be secretary of agriculture.

The 44-year-old Denver-born nominee succeeds Clinton P. Anderson, who resigned to campaign for the Senate in New Mexico on the Democratic ticket.

Flood Routs Thousands

Water Spills Over Dikes

(By Associated Press)

Thousands of persons fled their homes in the Richland-Pasco-Kennewick area of eastern Washington today as flood waters lapped over dikes, flooded several trailer camps and threatened numerous others.

Estimates of the number of evacuated persons varied widely. Benton County Sheriff Harry Cochrane reported earlier that 20,000 persons would be forced to move. Later reports by the sheriff's office, Kennewick city police and state patrol placed the figure closer to 5,000.

The exodus covered an eight mile strip from Pasco to the mouth of the Yakima river. Both the Yakima and Columbia rivers are at flood stage.

A cloudburst above Yakima last night increased the anxiety of river residents.

Those of the evacuated families employed at the Hanford atomic energy plant were given passes and moved into a government trailer camp at North Richland inside the Hanford works.

Others took up temporary stands at a former government trailer camp south of Kennewick.

Bankers Get High Posts

Charles N. Sutton, executive vice-president of the Richland Trust company, and Henry G. Brunner, executive vice-president of the Mansfield Savings Trust National Bank, were elected to official positions in the Ohio Bankers association at a state-wide meeting in Columbus today.

Sutton was elected association vice-president and Brunner was re-elected treasurer.

Also attending from Mansfield is Paul M Eliot, president of the Farmers Savings and Trust company and former president of the State Banking association.

Elected to head the organization was Ralph P. Dixon of Cincinnati, vice-president of the Citizens Bank of St. Bernard. Dixon succeeds C. W. McBride, cashier of the Farmers State Bank of West Salem.

Cincinnati was chosen as the 1949 convention city.

Old Bride Has Gay Wedding

BRUSHTON, N. Y.—(AP) A bride nearly a century old settled down today with the "young, strong man" she prefers to a pension.

It was a gay "fusterin'" wedding yesterday for tiny, crippled Mrs. Eliza Murray and 37-year-old Clarence McGee, even though her wedding ring cost only 50 cents.

The lanky farm hand and his bride spent their wedding night at her modest home in this rural northern New York village near the Canadian border. The day was a special holiday for the 500 residents, by proclamation of the mayor.

McGee planned to fix a broken wheel on his buggy so that they could have a honeymoon ride.

They weren't doing any public kissing.

Three thousand spectators crowded in and around the little Methodist church in nearby Moira while McGee slipped the 10-cent-store ring on his bride's finger.

"I couldn't kiss her with all o' these people lookin' on," he said, bashfully.

BUGGY WHEEL BREAKS

There had been some trying circumstances.

First, the buggy wheel broke and they had to ride in a neighbor's automobile to the church.

Then they had to wait 12 minutes for the district superintendent to sanction the marriage. They sat in the car while the crowd milled about.

The Rev. Lewis McConnell, pastor, quieted the crowd with this admonishment:

"This is just as sacred as if a queen were being married, or as if the richest persons in the world. Let us keep it that way."

State troopers kept order outside after the ceremony, as the couple made their way through rice and confetti.

Smoothing down her blue and white print cotton dress, the bride declared:

"I'm so happy. I never thought we would have a wedding like this."

McGee, who began courting her shortly after her first husband died last February had little to say.

Mrs. McGee thinks she may lose her old age pension but would "rather have a young, strong man than a pension." She's going to "see to it" that he shaves every day.

She has borne seven children, two of whom died in a highway accident. She lost her left leg in the accident and now has an artificial one.

Privately, Mrs. McGee admits she must be more than 90, but for the marriage license record she made it 80.

Evidently Talk Wasn't Appreciated

ROLLING FORK, Miss.—(AP)—A religious hitch-hiker decided today to keep his temperance lectures to himself in the future.

Hollie Leroy Meets, 27, of Ashland, Ky., told highway patrolmen he was reading his Bible beside the highway near Anquilla, Miss., when a stranger gave him a ride.

Meets said the man was drinking and he told him "you should watch yourself and not drink too much while driving."

Meets said the driver suddenly opened the door and pushed Meets out, then backed his automobile over him and drove away laughing.

Meets was in critical condition today with a broken back and internal injuries.

PROTESTS REJECTED

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States has flatly rejected Russian protests claiming American airplanes have interfered with Soviet shipping in the vicinity of Japan.

Driver Injured In Crash

Holmes Resident Fatally Hurt

John R. Arnold, 21, of Millersburg, R. D. 1, was instantly killed last night when the car in which he was riding rammed a culvert just north of the Black Fork bridge on U. S. Route 42 northeast of Mansfield.

State highway patrolmen said the 1934 Ford was "literally torn apart" in the accident which occurred at 9:05 p. m. just inside the Ashland county line.

Harold Derringer, 23, also of Millersburg, driver of the car, escaped with minor lacerations. He was treated and released at General hospital.

Patrolmen said Derringer had been arrested for unsafe operation at 6 p. m. yesterday by the Wooster state patrol post. Officers said Derringer was traveling at an "excessive rate of speed for the condition of his automobile."

Arnold, who suffered a broken neck, was pronounced dead on arrival at General hospital. The body will remain at the Finefrock funeral home until late Friday when it will be removed to the Elliott funeral home in Millersburg for Saturday morning services and burial.

BLINDED BY LIGHTS

Derringer told patrolmen the lights of an on-coming car blinded him, causing him to drive into the concrete culvert, crushing the car on Arnold's side.

The car then rolled over several times before coming to a stop in the middle of the highway. The driver said he was traveling about 45 miles per hour when the accident occurred. Wheels of the car were torn off the chassis.

The accident occurred about six and two-tenths miles northeast of Mansfield.

Arnold, a veteran of World War II, is survived by his mother, Mrs. Bernice Arnold, Millersburg, R. D. 1; his grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Miller; four brothers, Ralph, Dean, Frank and Danny, all at home; and four sisters, Mrs. George Boreman, Mrs. Robert Mullett of Millersburg and Charlene and Mary Anne, at home.

The victim was born in Holmes county on Sept. 24, 1926 and lived there his entire life. Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. Saturday with burial in the Holmesville cemetery.

Oleo Tax Cut Bill Favored

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Senate finance committee today approved, 12 to 0, the House-passed oleomargarine tax repeal bill.

Chairman Millikin (R-Colo.) said the committee wrote in an amendment to require that public eating places which serve colored margarine must post a sign saying so. He said the vote on this amendment was 10 to 2.

Chairman Taft (Ohio) of the Senate Republican policy committee told reporters that group will meet tomorrow to decide when to call up the oleo measure for Senate debate. Taft also is a member of the finance committee.

The bill would repeal the quarter of a cent pound tax on uncolored oleo and the 10-cent a pound levy on colored margarine.

It also would do away with license fees charged manufacturers and distributors. These range up to $600 a year in the case of producers.

Window Over Heart Closed

COLUMBUS — (UP) — A 19-day-old baby was recovering today from a rare surgical operation that closed a "window" over his heart.

The baby, Charles Kochensparger, one of twins born May 8 to Mrs. Charles Kochensparger, had a split breastbone which permitted his heart to bulge through his chest when he breathed or cried.

A surgeon whose name was not revealed stitched the soft gristle-like bone together, closing the opening.

Wanted: 353 Recruits In Three Days!

Giant Air Force Exhibit Comes to Central Park This Week End

In a whirlwind drive to recruit 353 officers and enlisted men for Mansfield's new 164th Fighter Squadron of the Ohio National Guard, the U. S. Air Force will bring to Mansfield tomorrow an exhibit of American equipment and captured German weapons that is expected to occupy the entire west side of Central park.

The exhibit will be open to the public Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The big tents will be set up in the park, adjacent to the exhibit, where recruiters will have short form application blanks ready for prospective enlistees. Some applications have already been received. Recruiters urge men interested in enlisting to come to the park over the week end to make application.

Screening, assigning and medical examination dates will be announced later.

The five-truckload military display will arrive here Friday noon. It is an Air Force Research and Development exhibit and will be sent here in the custody of an officer and 11 men from Wright-Patterson air base.

Here is the list of the major items that will be displayed:

1. A V-2 German rocket, used extensively by the enemy toward the end of the war. Many of these hit London from launching points in France.
2. A German Messerschmidt, 163, a rocket aircraft captured in the late stages of the war.
3. A German jet aircraft, 162, used in air combat.
4. A V-1 American buzz bomb. It is similar to the German bomb used on London.
5. A television radio-controlled bomb, one of the newer American weapons.
6. A radar unit out of a P-61 Black Widow night fighter. Along with it will be a panoram movie projector showing night fighter operations.
7. An electronic gunfire control station out of a B-29. It will be in operation during the exhibit.

Also on exhibit will be a G-suit; a J-33 jet engine; a five-foot rocket; propeller display; a link instrument trainer, and other smaller displays.

Maj. Gen. C. W. Goble, adjutant general of Ohio, has assigned Col. Lamont Saxton to head the recruiting drive. With him will be a staff of officers and men from Cleveland and Columbus.

Recruits are sought from Richland, Ashland, Morrow, Crawford, Huron, and Knox counties. An effort will be made to wind up the campaign during the three-day Central park show, but recruiting headquarters will be maintained after that at 200 Farmers Bank building, possibly until June 5.

Enlistees, 17 to 45, having previous military experience and those 17 to 35 without previous military experience, are eligible to join the guard. Rated officers are to receive flying pay in addition to the regular compensation, while enlisted men will receive a full day's army pay for each drill period in excess of two hours. The present draft legislation now being enacted in congress provides that men who are members of national guard units will be exempt from provisions of the draft.

Air guardsmen will have for training purposes

Streets Will Be Oiled When Weather Gets Hot

The city's 31 miles of dirt streets will be covered with oil to keep the dust down as soon as the weather becomes sufficiently hot and dry, E. W. Davis said today.

"I've been swamped with calls from persons in all sections of the city asking that we oil their streets because the dust is getting on their clean wash and into their homes," Davis reported.

But the weather has made it impossible to apply the oil," he explained. "For one thing the temperatures have been too cool.

"If we applied oil now, the oil would not cure (soak into the ground) and it would become a gummy mass that would be carried all over the city on car tires and into homes."

"Furthermore," Davis continued, "the ground must be perfectly dry before we can oil the streets. The mornings have been so cool that the ground has been covered with a heavy dew and the oil coat would not cure properly."

Meanwhile, crews are filling bad ruts in the paved as well as unpaved streets. The oil will not be laid down on the dirt streets until the ruts have been filled.

COLUMBUS—(INS)—Walter C. Stross, 30, GI Ohio State university student from Cincinnati, who has offered the student Senate $3,000, said today he planned to quit the university—over a five dollar student union fee.

Stross gave the Senate $1,200 to buy a voting machine and wants to make it $1,800 more if the money can't be raised by public subscription. But he won't pay the union fee because it's compulsory. He says: "I've been taught to give, but not to have things taken from me."

Sports Chatter

By Fritz Howell

(Ohio AP Sports Editor)

COLUMBUS—Bits of this and that from here and there:

Ever wonder how the $3.50 you pay for an Ohio State university football ticket is cut up? Well. Ticket Director Oscar Thomas came up with the breakdown today, and here 'tis:

Federal tax, 58 cents; visiting college's share, $1.46; financing football and other sports, 58 cents; administration, 18 cents; maintenance, 22 cents; band, medical care and training, 18 cents; capital improvements and reserve for future construction, 30 cents.

★

The combined booster clubs of St. Mary and Harding high schools at Marion will sponsor a Nov. 6 football game in their city between Capital and Ohio Northern universities. . . . Marion is about halfway between the home towns of the two schools; Steubenville Central has sifted 25 applications for football coach in its search for a successor to Mac Cara. . . . And the College of Steubenville is expected to announce its new grid mentor early in June; down at Hamilton 51 applications for the job vacated by Massillon-bound Chuck Mather are on file. . . . But we still believe the choice will be a present college head cage coach; Glenford's Golden Glen Hursey, three-time All-Ohio cage star, is being watched as a baseball pitcher by the Detroit Tigers. . . . Scout Curtis Hammerbeck has followed the outstanding hurler around for weeks.

★

The Amrine Angels, softball team of London prison farm, is doing all right again this year. . . . Latest reports had 'em winning seven of their first nine tilts, with Ed (Fireball) Kelley doing most of the hurling; this is a big week end for Ohio's colleges. . . . The Ohio conference holds its annual meeting and spring sports program at Delaware, and the Mid-American loop does the same at Athens.

A sweeping change in game-management policies, based on environment control, has been adopted by the Ohio conservation and natural resources commission.

Commissioner H. A. (Buck) Rider said the program will have major objectives of maintaining existing good habitat and restoring, wherever feasible, depleted and insufficient natural environment. The land improvement work will be supplemented by a minimum of artificial propagation and stocking.

Such a program has been recommended for years by wildlife technicians in opposition to antiquated methods of dumping unhardened pen-reared birds into coverts which have not been able to support wild-reared birds. Good hunting, fellas!

Seven Drivers Qualify For 500 Mile Race

INDIANAPOLIS —(AP)— The starting field in the annual Memorial Day Indianapolis speedway classic was virtually complete today with only three spots still open.

Seven drivers qualified yesterday for the 500-mile race to bring the total to 30. The best time in yesterday's qualification runs was Mack Helling's average of 127.968.

Helling, from Burbank, Calif., pushed a new Don Lee Kurtis Kraft around the track in the fifth fastest time of the year. Only Duke Nalon, Mauri Rose, Bill Holland, and Rex Mays have topped his mark.

Paul Russo, Kenosha, Wis., drove a Maserati racer over the ten-mile test run at 122.595 miles an hour.

DRIVES OWN CAR

Other qualifiers were Johnny Mauro, driver, who drove his own Alfa-Romeo at a 121.790 mile-an-hour clip and Bill Sheffler, Los Angeles, who drove his Offenhauser along at 124.529.

Tommy Hinnershitz piloted a Kurtis Kraft owned by Ed Walsh of St. Louis over the track at 125.212, while Harry MacQuinn, Indianapolis, qualified with a 122.154 mark.

The Belanger Motors Special owned by Merle Belanger of Crown Point, Ind., qualified with the day's second best speed of 126.396 miles an hour. The car was driven by Tony Bettenhausen, Tinley Park, Ill., a veteran dirt track and midget driver.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

OAKLAND, Calif.—George "Sugar" Costner, 150, Oakland, outpointed O'Neill Bell, 157, Detroit, 10.

ELIZABETH, N. J.—Tommy Parks, 144½, Rahway, N. J., outpointed Gene Hairston, 150¾, New York, 8.

Stymie Working On First Million

NEW YORK—(AP)— Every little bit helps, so Stymie is $4,875 farther along today toward his first million dollars.

The turf's leading money winner added that amount to his record earnings by winning the mile and a furlong Ballot purse yesterday at Belmont.

This wad of cash, small potatoes for Mrs. E. D. Jacobs' veteran campaigner, pushed the horse's earnings to $849,635. But the Ballot run was mainly just a workout. Stymie is pointing to the $50,000 Suburban handicap at Belmont Monday.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

BATTING—Bobby Thompson, Giants—Doubled and singled for two of eight Giant hits in eight-run rally against St. Louis.

PITCHING—Sid Hudson and Tom Ferrick, Senators—Teamed up on three-hit shutout of league-leading Cleveland, 2-0.

HOROSCOPE

For Friday May 28

IN spite of several static, congested and disturbed conditions, there should be definite progress made in putting important and long-range propositions over, with lasting and very substantial returns. This by a concerted marshalling of varied forces and talents, with ingenuity, application and hard work, supported by clever strategies, in which intuition or "hunches" may play more than a minor role. Well-organized plans shrewdly executed, with the long-view should reach solid ground.

For the Birthday.

Those whose birthday it is are encouraged to plan carefully, with far-range vision and solidarity in sight. A policy of clever strategy and perhaps secret plans, put over with determination, concentrated efforts, and practical techniques could attain enduring and lasting security. Working to this end, for substantial futures and possessions, perhaps heeding shrewd "hunches" or intuitive leads might have power to remove obstacles and plant genuine creative foundations. But submit emotions or urges to logic and common sense, for best results.

A child born on this day although possessing shrewd and clever emotional leads or impressions, also has good judgment and application to back up its ideals.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Organization of the colorful recruiting campaign was completed today within four days after formal notification that the federal government had approved the $1,000,000 air national guard unit for Mansfield airport. Approval came in the wake of feverish activity by Chamber of Commerce committees to obtain the installation of a half dozen buildings and 36 airplanes for the city.

An advisory committee composed of business and industrial leaders, headed by Alan P. Tappan, is assisting with the recruiting and organizing job.

Finds Body In Basement

Man, 69, Had Been Dead For 10 Days

The body of James A Carmen, about 69, was found in the basement at 190 North Main street about 9:30 a. m., today by a friend who had not seen Mr. Carmen for several days and went to look for him.

Coroner D. C. Lavender said the elderly man had been dead about 10 days and apparently died of a stroke. Police said Mr. Carmen lived in the basement.

"He didn't die immediately, however," the coroner reasoned, "because we found him lying on the floor with a pillow under his head. It seems that before he died, although unable to lift himself on to the bed, he was able to pull a pillow from the bed and put it under his head."

The body was discovered by Frank Reynolds, a friend. After police examined the body, it was removed to the Wolford funeral home. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

UEW Head Quits In Row With Union

Objects to Reds In High Offices

BUCYRUS — Citing the refusal of national officers of the United Electrical Workers (CIO) to comply with anti-communist provisions which he declared were "not to my liking," Edward Uhl, president of Local 704, today presented his resignation as head of the local.

Uhl's resignation came upon his return from a conference board meeting of locals from General Electric plants in New York City.

"I can no longer follow the policies set up by the national officers," he said in explaining his move. He further stated that "business affairs of the local are no longer conducted as desired but policies are dictated by international representatives who attend every meeting."

His resignation elevates Harry Hayes to the presidency.

Ticker Tape Runs Behind

NEW YORK —(AP)— The stock market today advanced to the highest level since August 1946 when a heavy rush of buying lifted prices a few cents to more than $1 a share.

Demand was fast enough for a time to put the high-speed ticker tape one minute behind dealings on the floor of the exchange.

Nearly half a million shares changed hands in the first hour of business but activity later slackened.

Buying was based largely on optimistic interpretations of the General Motors wage settlement. Many security dealers hoped that as a result strike-bound Chrysler corporation would settle its differences with labor.

Lax Payment Of Bills Hit

BUCYRUS — City officials responsible for operation of Bucyrus City hospital were scored by the state examiner who presented his findings for the two-year audit period of 1944-46 from the state auditor's department today.

The report showed $26,041.47 in unpaid hospital accounts up to September 20, 1946.

The examiners' memorandum stated that "many of the unpaid accounts were incurred by persons not residents of Bucyrus who are able to pay for hospital service. There is no possible excuse for many of the unpaid accounts and officials are subject to criticism for having failed to enforce collections promptly."

He further stated: "It is not fair to taxpayers and citizens of Bucyrus who pay promptly while others able to pay escape payment of bills."

Has Perfect Attendance

ASHLAND — One member of this year's Ashland high school graduating class has not missed a single day of school during her entire 12 years attendance.

Dora Mae Bone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bone, 233 East Fourth street, says her perfect attendance was the result of excellent health, plenty of rest, a great liking for school and the good fortune to have measles, chickenpox and other children's diseases during summer vacations.

Dora Mae plans to enter either nurse's training or college in preparation for elementary teaching.

Evidence Heard In Morals Case

Counsel for both sides presented their closing arguments to a juvenile court jury of nine men and three women shortly before noon today in the case of George Ragan, 52, of Ridge road.

Ragan is charged with attempted assault of a 16-year-old girl. Juvenile Judge Stuart H. Cramer was to charge the jury after luncheon-recess.

H. Eugene Ryan is attorney for Ragan and Prosecutor Theodore Lutz is handling the case for the state.

Market Closed After 23 Years

Harvey Dickson, who for 23 years has operated the U-Save market at 26 North Walnut street, is liquidating his business.

The store ceased operations on Saturday when all the stock was sold. The fixtures are being sold this week.

"I'm just going to take it easy from now on," Dickson said. "I've decided to retire and have no plans to open another business."

Court Suspends Husband's Sentence

Todd Robison, Lexington, was given a 30-day suspended jail sentence in municipal court today after he was found guilty of an assault and battery charge brought by his wife, Carmen.

Ora Stoodt, 375 Buffalo street, was fined $100 and costs on a charge of intoxication. Unable to pay the fine, he was sent to the Columbus workhouse to serve out the fine at a rate of $3 a day.

"If I'd known he was gonna act like this, I'd never of shaken hands!"

Memorial Day Parade Set For Monday In Lexington

LEXINGTON — A parade and services in the cemetery Monday morning will highlight Lexington's observance of Memorial day.

Sponsored by the Service Men's club, the parade will form at 10 a. m. in the village park and move north on Lexington avenue to the cemetery. Boy and Girl Scouts, war veterans, and servicemen and women have been invited to march. The high school band will lead the parade.

Principal speaker at services in the cemetery following the parade will be Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell, pastor of the First Lutheran church, Mansfield. Rev. Charles Monninger of the Lexington Christian church will give the invocation and Rev. Paul Biegley of the Presbyterian church will deliver the benediction.

Norman Kiser, a Lexington high school pupil, will give Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address."

Scouts will place flowers at the service honor roll in the park and on a veteran's grave.

Horning Named Chairman Of Casting Club Committee

Earl Horning was appointed chairman of the new Mansfield Casting club committee at an organizational meeting last night at the YMCA.

Other committee members of the new club appointed last night were Martin Pahls, Ernest Fuller jr., Dana Cairn, Clarence "Duke" Hassinger, Kenneth L. Woodman, Martha Bernhardt, Josephine Kozik, Glen Sheriff, James Burkhart, John Fike and Maurice W. Taylor.

The new Mansfield Casting club in cooperation with the Richland County Fish and Game association, plans to develop interest in casting.

It will give instruction to Mansfielders and conduct casting tournaments in fly and bait casting in the area. A program of instruction and assistance will be offered to children as well as adults.

The club is making preparations to place 30-inch aluminum rings in the various pools and lakes in the Mansfield area with casting equipment for practice casting for the general public.

Mansfielders interested in the club and its activity were invited to contact members of the committee.

More Than 5,000 See Navy Exhibit

More than 5,000 Mansfielders visited the U. S. Navy radar and aircraft detection unit during its two-day stay at Central park, Navy officials reported today.

Major Robert Hall, senior instructor of the 321st Bombardment group (Reserve) flew a plane over the city last night and the sailors spotted the plane with radar and threw their search light beams on the plane. Thousands of persons watched as the plane circled over the city.

Residents to Vote on Site For New School In Galion

GALION—A decision to give the North school district residents a chance to vote on the site for the new elementary school in that district was reached at a meeting last night of the Galion board of education and a representative group of citizens of the district.

The meeting, it was learned today, was called by the board president, Robert M. Corry. About 65 persons attended.

Mrs. Eric Brooke, president of the North P-TA, presided and introduced Corry, who told of a petition received earlier this year by the board in protest to the site at Heise park which the board selected earlier in the year for the new building.

The discussion that followed resulted in the appointment of a committee including Mrs. John Mortland, A. C. Stover and M. G. Fisher to prepare a ballot for residents in the North school district. The committee will set a date for an election on the ballot.

Golden Class To Re-unite

BUCYRUS—A reunion of graduates of 50 years ago, which has become traditional with commencement for Bucyrus high seniors, will bring together at least eight of the 19 graduates of the class of 1898. Eleven are living.

Others expected to be present for the reunion are Mrs. S. E. Auck and Miss Clara Gohrisch of Bucyrus, Mrs. Edith Blythe Wiseman of Mt. Gilead; Miss Jeanette Rexroth of Cleveland; Arthur Schaefer of Detroit, and Earl Reece of Toledo.

PAGE FOUR — MANSFIELD, OHIO, THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1948

One observer contends there are plenty of $5,000 houses—with doors, floors and windows extra.

It was Cicero who discovered—way back then—that: "Prosperity demands of us more prudence and moderation than adversity."

According to the Hartford Courant, Joe Martin is "one of the darker dark horses" in the race for the Republican presidential nomination—which at least adds color to discussion of prospects.

Prices Still 'On the Up and Up'

THE SIGH of relief induced by announcement of agreements which will avert a threatened strike of General Motors workers is closely followed by pained realization that the settlement formula is more likely to bring a further boost in automobile prices—which have already reached a prohibitive level for many would-be purchasers.

While there are obvious elements of fairness in provisions of the agreement, in its intended adjustment of wages to living costs, it appears as rather complacent acceptance of present inflationary price levels as likely to continue rather than anticipating a return to lower-priced automobiles.

This extends further than the single item of automotive transportation and signals warning to fixed-income individuals and groups that a continuation of hard sledding is ahead unless a way can be found to readjust all low and moderate incomes to the new order of things.

Would Impede Free Flow of Trade

TIME is running out for the Reciprocal Trade Agreements act, which expires June 12. It is not expected that Congress will allow the program to expire without doing anything about it, but diplomatic officials believe that what the congressional leadership plans to do would kill the program by less direct means.

Indications thus far are that only a one-year extension of the act will get through Congress, instead of the customary three-year act, and the restrictions will be added which would greatly reduce its usefulness. In other words, certain leaders in Congress apparently want to turn back the clock to the good old high-tariff days.

The people do not want to go back to high tariffs, for they know that the free flow of trade is better. Business interests, except for a few powerful industrial trusts, also want trade to continue, for they know that trade is the life of business. Economists and diplomats favor the reciprocal trade agreements program, for they know that world relations, economic health and the prospect of peace flourish with free movement of trade, and that tariff walls mean national isolation, poverty and wars.

But the future of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements act seems to have been decided by the smoke-filled-room technique. The outcry of an aroused public seems necessary to save it.

Radar Used To Check Speeders

WITH MANSFIELD radar-conscious as a result of the Navy display this week in Central park, there is especial interest in the experiment being performed in Columbus. In the Ohio capital radar is being used to cut traffic speeding violations.

At special detection points radar equipment checks the speed of passing cars. This data is forwarded ahead to patrol cars which pick up the speeder.

Use of a similar device would be particularly interesting on Marion avenue in Mansfield where there is nothing to serve as an automatic check on the speed of drivers who whiz through two shopping areas and past a school in a closely populated area.

Austria Irked By Long Occupation

AUSTRIA is unhappy and indignant, and seems destined to remain so for a while. The four powers, Russia, Great Britain, France and the United States, have given up the current effort to reach agreement on a peace treaty for Austria. Presumably this means that the occupation of Austria will go on indefinitely.

The suspension of treaty talks lends a significant overtone to the exchange of words relating to conversation and agreement between the United States and Russia. Official sources say that during nearly two years of negotiations for an Austrian treaty three of the powers have been in substantial agreement on the basic principles for a settlement, while the fourth has adamantly refused to make any concession toward agreement with the majority. The persistent dissenter is Russia.

The Austrians point out that they were the first victims of nazi expansion. They regard continued occupation as unjust, and an unfair burden on their economy. (The United States supports its own troops in Austria, but Austria is assessed for a portion of the cost of supporting troops of the other three powers.)

Austria appeals to the four powers to end their disagreement and their occupation. But if the three powers which are able to agree should yield to the fourth sufficiently to reach settlement. Austria would again be the loser. Russia is holding out for territorial reparations claims against Austria on behalf of Yugoslavia.

Court Decision Favors Men

WOMEN are not as efficient as men, the Minnesota supreme court rules. Hold everything! Before the embattled women trek to Minnesota to tell the court just what they think of them, they should read the rest of the decision. It relates to bartending. The court held that men were better bartenders, because their superior strength gave them advantages when it came to putting out an unruly customer.

It is a relief to learn that there is at least one occupation at which men are officially held to be better.

Those wartime hens that laid eggs bearing the letter "V" are at it again, and Michigan interpreters express confidence that this time it means "Vandenberg."

What Some Other People Are Saying

SEN. FERGUSON (R-Mich): "I think the Mundt-Nixon bill is as much a part of our defense as the draft. We must demonstrate to the world that we'll fight communism with arms and with statutes, wherever it tries to overthrow our government."

* * *

REP. GAMBLE (R-NY): "The American housing problem will be beaten in two to four years."

* * *

SEYMOUR SEGAL, laborite member of parliament. "It is a little hard to call on the Arab states to cease firing after we supplied them with arms."

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Stassen Weakened By Second-Place Talk

THE ODDS against Harold Stassen in the last two weeks of the primary fight were too great, even for a campaigner of iron nerves and endurance. Those of us who were ringside observers in the final days in Portland began to see signs of weakness in the ex-governor's campaign.

No candidate in history has ever attempted so difficult a job as Stassen has faced over nearly two years. And it is natural that mistakes will accumulate as human energy ebbs.

As the event proved, it was an error to make a national issue of outlawing the Communist party. In this writer's opinion, any party advocating orthodox communism ought to be denied a place on the ballot. But the federal government cannot do that directly.

The issue is, under the Constitution, a matter for the states. Hence, two candidates for president were neglecting some real issues in arguing about the Communist party. And when the debate took place, Stassen made the fatal error of retreating to the Mundt bill, which professedly does not outlaw the Communist party as such.

More important than this in injuring Stassen was and is the growing talk among supporters of Vandenberg that the Minnesota man is not really running for the presidency, but for the vice presidency.

Last year, on a western trip Stassen stated that under certain circumstances he would accept the vice-presidential nomination. At that time, I was in Minneapolis and learned at first hand how the announcement had taken the heart out of some of his supporters. They regarded it as a tactical mistake of the first order. It has taken a heavy toll.

* * *

Unlikely Combination.

STASSEN has attempted to rectify this error by naming certain people with whom he will not run, such as Taft and Dewey. But he has not excluded Vandenberg, and that is seriously injuring his chances.

It enables people to calculate that, since Vandenberg is along in years and not too vigorous, it is well to have a young substitute standing by. Also, that since Vandenberg has let himself be reported to be willing to be drafted for only one term, it would permit Stassen to go after the big job in 1952, at the still youthful age of 45.

This is all very nice in theory, but it raises serious questions and also weakens Stassen's drive for the top job. In the first place, it is extremely doubtful whether the convention would nominate a Vandenberg-Stassen slate.

Mid-western and western politicians point out that since there are two distinct philosophies in foreign affairs in the Republican party, the convention would be likely to appease both, rather than one. In short, a Vandenberg-Green combination would be more likely than a Vandenberg-Stassen one, since in foreign affairs the latter combination represents only a single point of view.

Another, even more important factor is involved. The responsibility for executive government falls upon the president. The vice president, until the dread moment when he becomes acting president, is a legislative officer.

Attempts by Roosevelt to use Henry Wallace in administrative work caused unending trouble. As head of the Bureau of Economic Warfare, Wallace ran afoul of the jealousies and prerogatives of cabinet officers like Hull and Jones. The result was to put Wallace back on the rostrum in the Senate. There can be no fifth wheels around the executive department. The president and the president alone can direct administration.

Stassen would be well advised to aim high and continue to aim high, regardless of consequences. Those who ask for half a loaf in politics usually end up with nothing.

Washington Calling

FBI Hit By Cut In Funds

By MARQUIS CHILDS

THE CURRENT alarm over communism in the United States and in the world has meant a greatly increased burden for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the agency responsible under law for internal security. President Truman's loyalty order alone meant a new load of sizeable proportions.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover requested an appropriation of $50,106,000 for the government year beginning July 1. The Bureau of the Budget reviewed the request and cut it to $43,900,000.

There seems to have been little or no disposition in Senate or House to restore this cut, even though Hoover in his testimony made clear what it would mean. After July 1, 1800 positions will be abolished, including a reduction in the number of FBI agents.

Hoover has said privately that it may be necessary to close down FBI offices in the territories.

The seriousness of this does not need emphasizing in view of the vulnerability of Hawaii and Alaska and of the explosive potentialities in Puerto Rico, with its dire poverty and fearful overcrowding.

In the period immediately preceding Pearl Harbor, the FBI in Honolulu developed vital information about Jap intentions that the Army and Navy ignored.

Both House and Senate have approved the FBI appropriation as cut by the Bureau of the Budget. Yet at the same time, by an overwhelming majority, the House passed a law intended to bring communism into the open and thereby make it harmless. This is a beautiful example of our tendency to rely on the magic of law.

Senator Robert A. Taft says the Mundt bill must be given serious study before the Senate can consider action. It is hoped the study will include a thorough survey of present security measures, with a view to determining whether they can be more effectively employed within the framework of the Constitution and present law.

Rep. Chet Holifield put in a bill calling on the attorney general to submit a detailed report on the efforts being carried out under present laws, with conclusions on whether these laws should be strengthened or new laws adopted.

The Holifield measure has the same preamble as the Mundt bill, setting out a "clear and present danger," but significantly it includes the danger from fascism as well as communism.

* * *

Real Courage Needed.

THE political implications of all this are clear in an election year. It took real courage for genuine liberals of the type of Holified, Rep. John Carroll of Colorado and Rep. Jacob Javits of New York to go against the Mundt bill. These men, who have no communist taint whatsoever, realized that they would have to stand up and be counted alongside the demagogic Vito Marcantonio, who carefully treads the communist party line.

There are available weapons against communism that have been only partly employed or employed crudely and in such a way as to do more harm than good. One is publicity—a two-edged sword that can be effective in trained and skillful hands.

The House un-American activities committee has frequently misused this weapon, sometimes doing great injustice. But if some of the carefully collected and documented information in the FBI files could be released, it might show the public the nature of the conspiracy, and those who might otherwise be attracted to communism through a sense of injustice or frustration would be warned away.

We in this country, with its great forward move in living standards, in well-being, in individualism, should understand above all other peoples that there can be no absolute security by law.

A healthy, progressive society provides increasing rewards and satisfactions for an ever greater number of people. These are not material rewards alone. They include, above all, a sense of participating in and belonging to the society. With effective precautions for security, communism will not flourish in that kind of free society.

The attempt to legislate communism out of existence may end the freedoms at the root of our way of life.

Looking Back

Twenty Years Ago Today

Sunday, May 27, 1928.

Baccalaureate sermon to class of 1928, MHS, was given in high school auditorium by Rev. L. A. Sittler, reformatory chaplain.

Pre-Memorial day service at St. Luke's Lutheran church was attended by patriotic organizations. Sermon subject of Rev. Herbert S. Garnes was "The Good Soldier."

Mrs. Henry Barr, 75, died at her home eight miles east of Mansfield.

Burglar was surprised and frightened away while looting home of Miss Anna Delp, 31 Burns street.

Son was born to Mr. and Mrs. B. G. McCoy, 47 Hoffman avenue; daughter to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bertshe, 227 Park avenue east.

Benjamin B. Brightbill, 61, died at his home in East Mansfield.

Steel flag pole, presented to GAR by Arthur S. Hughes and erected in front of Memorial building, was dedicated.

TODAY IN HISTORY

Amelia Jenks Bloomer, American dress-reformist and women's rights advocate, was born on May 27, 1818. In 1849 she took up the idea of reforming women's dress. Those who wore the styles she sponsored were called Bloomer Girls.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Real Estate Lobby Stymies Housing Bill

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — For several days last month the House of Representatives was tied up in the famous oleo-butter debate. It created a national sensation.

The oleomargarine bill, pigeonholed by the dairy interests in committee, was forced out by a petition signed by 218 congressmen, half of them from the South. Then the debate started. For several days it raged, with full attendance on the House floor urged by both parties.

The argument of the oleomargarine congressmen was that they were battling for the housewife. But actually they weren't.

Many of them were battling because the powerful cottonseed lobby in the South had put on the heat. Campaign contributions, not housewives was the motivating force.

Today, another sort of battle looms in the House of Representatives only this time the situation is reversed. This time not only the housewife is involved, but her children, her husband, and the future of the American family.

But this time, the southern congressmen who rushed in to sign the oleo petition arent' signing up. Neither are the Republicans. For this time the petition has to do with housing.

* * *

Real Estate Lobby.

THE Taft-Ellender-Wagner Housing Act, stymied for two years, has now passed the Senate, and is pigeonholed in the House banking and currency committee. Its opponents on this committee include Rep. Charles Fletcher of San Diego, Cal., and Rep. John Riley of Sumter, S. C., both members of the real estate lobby and both placed on the committee with the help of lobbyist Morton Bodfish, now under indictment.

In addition, Chairman Jesse Wolcott of Michigan, sometimes called No. 1 tyrant of the House of Representatives, is determined not to let the housing bill out of his committee.

To overrule Wolcott and get the bill out requires 218 signatures on a petition, and Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas of California, has courageously undertaken to get these 218 names. First she went to genial ex-Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas.

"I've never signed a petition in my life, Helen," replied Rayburn, "but I'm with you in spirit and I'll help you. Go to John McCormack and get his name on there first."

Mrs. Douglas went to McCormack, who comes from a congested part of Boston. He too, had made it a practice not to sign discharge petitions, but in this case he made an exception. His name heads the list.

Mrs. Douglas has patiently, painstakingly, valiantly made the rounds of the House, has now collected 125 names. She needs 93 more. But they don't seem to be forthcoming—despite the fact that the bill has already passed the Senate.

Significant fact is that only 15 southern congressmen out of the total 110 southerners in the House, have signed the petition in favor of housing—despite their frantic anxiety to sign a similar petition to get the oleomargarine bill out of committee.

The difference is that in the case of oleo, an active lobby was on the job, buying drinks, buttonholing congressmen, putting on the pressure at home.

But when it comes to housing, only the people are concerned—many of them poor people, uninformed people, people unfamiliar with exerting pressure on Congress. There are several million of these people, but politically speaking they aren't important. They don't contribute to political campaigns. They're not organized. They just want homes.

So, in these days when the country is worried about communism, it might pay Congressman Wolcott of Michigan and his GOP henchmen, plus some of the southern legislators, to remember that nothing is more effective in combatting communism than a roof over your head and someplace where a mother can hear her children's prayers alone at night.

Note — Southern congressmen who have recognized the need of housing by signing the discharge petition include: Jones of Alabama; Mills of Arkansas; Price and Smathers of Florida; Lanham of Georgia; Boggs and Morrison of Louisiana; Deane of North Carolina; Stigler, Albert and Morris of Oklahoma; Dorn and Bryson of South Carolina; Kefauver of Tennessee; Patman of Texas.

"Protocols of Wise Men."

SENATOR Harley Kilgore, forthright West Virginia Democrat, has asked the post office department to investigate whether rabble-rousing Gerald L. K. Smith violated the postal laws in using the mails to circulate a document, purported to be a Jewish master-plan for conquering the world.

A copy of the document, so-called "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion," was mailed by Smith to each member of Congress. These protocols have reappeared perennially throughout history whenever propagandists wanted to impose on a gullible public. The old czarist regime in Russia published them, as did Henry Ford and later Adolf Hitler.

To settle the question of their authenticity, Senator Kilgore called upon the Library of Congress and received a detailed summary which branded the protocols as "rank and pernicious forgeries." He has now asked the post office department whether it is permissible to send them through the mails.

Assignment: America

Story Can Now Be Told

By KENNETH L. DIXON

WASHINGTON — Right or wrong, the words written long ago by a now-dead general make almost command reading for today's living Americans—for many reasons.

Approximately five years ago, during the fairly early stages of the war, a group of newsmen gathered around this certain general one evening and listened to what he had to say. It was a small group, and each one among them was bound by that off-the-record oath which was so prevalent during wartime.

Although in this instance the oath was binding only so long as the war lasted, as far as this correspondent today knows no one among them has even yet written of the story they were told that night.

In effect, the general said to them that night:

"Listen, all this has been told to the war department—all this and a great deal more. But if you are to watch the reports of victories and defeats coming from the East, and if you are to evaluate those stories properly, this is something you should know.

"The majority of Chiang's so-called army is led by the old robber baron type of general. You can neither count on it to give combat then called upon nor depend on its reports of battles, once they are finished.

"The reason is that the generals are paid on a per capita basis. Most of them, therefore, falsified their strength reports in the beginning, which means they are not nearly as strong as the records show them to be.

"Secondly, even if they have enough strength to make a fair show of a fight, they resent doing it—unless guaranteed a simple and cheap victory. Winning a costly battle does not interest them, however much good it might do the Allied cause, because if they lose men under their command, their pay scale drops accordingly until they can recruit more.

"As a result, they often fake battle reports, telling stories of terrific combats which never occurred at all. Also, you will notice that their so-called 'land gains' are usually seasonal—'rice raids', we call them, because that's what most of them are. Often they merely are troop movements over unopposed territory to capture the newly-harvested rice for army rations. But they report terrific battles and vast victories to Chiang's headquarters . . ."

* * *

Confirmed By History.

THE GENERAL said a lot more that night, much along the same line. And he was a man to whom the newsmen listened with respect, for he was one general who had reported at the end of a then-major Allied campaign: "I claim we got one hell of a beating!"

As clearly as history has been able to record it since, that one statement of General Joseph W. (Vinegar Joe) Stilwell's at least was unswervingly correct. And while history has not, as yet, been totally capable of making up its mind about certain other things he said, the fact that he was truthful to the detriment of his own battle report gives us a yardstick by which to Judge his other opinions.

For being that bitterly truthful about one's own defeats was not at all popular with the Army brass at the time.

Today, a new book entitled "The Stilwell Papers" tells Stilwell's side of many a war-within-a-war. And although many may disagree with the bitter conclusions drawn by "Vinegar Joe," few should dare doubt that Stilwell himself was fully convinced of the truth of every word he said.

Unfortunately, since his death in 1946, some of those who knew his diaries and letters could condemn them, have fallen back on the cowardly and ridiculous defense of calling him a pro-communist.

Even his worst enemies within the war department know and willingly admit just how silly such a charge really is. Stilwell's entire life history makes the accusation laughable.

However, many men can and do question the correctness of many of Stilwell's conclusions. Among those, for instance, is General Chennault, with whom "Vinegar Joe" constantly was feuding. But even Chennault has never questioned his unswerving honesty, his utter courage—he was half-blind throughout the war—or his complete patriotism.

Thus, what he had to say about many of our leaders and our Allies during the war should be read today for exactly what they are worth—a crusty but courageous and honest general's opinions—and they should be rated accordingly.

Farmer's Diary

When the Farm Is Sold

By CALVIN A. BYERS

YOU'LL BE surprised to know I've sold my farm," an old man told me. "We had a fine offer, and so I let it all go but two acres and the old house where we live. The tenant house is newer than ours, anyway, and on the traveled road.

"The buyer was a young man from our community — married now, with two children. He's a farmer who wants a permanent home. He had half the money, and we gave him time for the rest and took a mortgage.

"I was almost afraid to mention it to Mary—the idea of selling. We could do something we'd regret all our born days, and for awhile, while we thought it over, we both went around muttering to ourselves. Finally she said, 'Now Amos, tell him what you've a mind to, and be satisfied, and stop lolling your tongue behind your gray whiskers.'

"So, we had the contract all ready and his wife came with him to sign the papers, and then I made my speech. I told him He'd be the buyer of lots of things not mentioned on that paper, but still as vital and important as life itself. You can't buy and sell the love that's gone into a piece of land over a long lifetime. You can't estimate the value of a clear stream, warbling birds, friendly wild animals. There's beauty in the spring woods that's as reverent as a church, and an old field bordering a woods has a feeling to it that can't be owned by any mere man. Go there for strength, when you're tired or blue—and look at the deep-rooted oak that must be a century old.

"And, for the years that are left to my wife and me, I hope you won't mind if I roam your fields sometimes. They're still part of me, and I'll only bless you for it. I'll only walk along and worship maybe, and drink my fill of the water from the spring.

"Then I shook his hand, and he seemed to understand me. He's an upright young chap with a good wife to help him, and he'll make good."

"'Your farm is a living place, Mr. L.,' he said to me, 'and that's why it seems almost too good to be true that we're going to live and work there. As God prospers us, we'll promise you to try to keep it as rich and fertile as we find it.'

"And, as Mary says, 'What more can a boy say than that'—so we're glad it's gone. It is time for us two to stop working so hard, and give way to younger hands."

U. S. Denies Special Tax Aid to Ike

'Given Same Help As Anyone Else'

WASHINGTON —(UP)— Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower received no special tips from the treasury department on how to save income taxes on the sale of his memoirs, Secretary John W. Snyder said yesterday.

Eisenhower's request to the Internal Revenue Bureau was handled as anyone else's would have been, Snyder told a news conference.

He denied published reports that Eisenhower, who quit the Army to become president of Columbia university, had received a special ruling from the bureau.

Eisenhower reportedly sold the copyright to his memoirs outright. This would enable him to pay a 25 per cent capital gains tax on the money he receives instead of a higher income tax, as much as 77 per cent, he would be required to pay on royalties. Outright sale of the copyright, however, would bar him from participating in royalty income.

Snyder said the bureau had given Eisenhower a general ruling on the subject.

"Any other citizens would have received the same counsel, help and ruling," Snyder said.

He said the bureau issues about 40,000 tax rulings a year for the asking

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

It's Leap Year, Girls!

First girl in our town to "get her man" on Leap Year was the Cuppers' daughter, Jane, who wed Bill Webster's boy last Saturday.

When I asked Bill Jr. if it was true that Janey really did the proposing, Bill said: No, but she made it plain she'd make an ideal wife. Instead of looking for diversion or excitement every evening, she was content to chat beside the fire.

"I could plainly see," says Bill, "that we'd really have a happy home life—which is just exactly what I want from marriage."

I know it's usual for older folks to shake their heads over the younger generation. (It's gone on for hundreds of years, now.)

But from where I sit, young people of marrying age today are every bit as commendable as their elders were—in their temperance (a glass of beer for instance), tolerance, and common sense. So to Jane and Bill—the best of luck!

Wallace Terms Detroit Top Intimidation City

NEW YORK —(U.P.)— Henry A. Wallace, third party candidate for president, wrote in the New Republic magazine today that he had faced more threats and attempts at intimidation in Detroit, than in any other city.

"Detroit is industrial America in the raw," Wallace wrote, describing his recent visit there, immediately after he released his open letter to Premier Josef Stalin.

"Detroit represents all that is vigorous, driving, inventive, uninformed, confused and groping in American life," Wallace said. "In no city has there been more espionage, not merely on the part of management against labor, but also within the labor movement itself.

"Since the campaign started, I have received more threats and specific instances of intimidation from the Detroit area than from any other part of the country."

Nazi Financier Airs His Views

Schacht Favorable to Marshall Plan

By DON DOANE

LUDWIGEBURG, Germany — (AP) — Dr Hjalmar Schacht, Hitler's reichsbank president, says the Marshall plan is "an excellent start" toward rebuilding Europe's economy Likewise, he favors recent moves toward a federated union of European nations.

Schacht

All in all, the old Nazi financier thinks "the western world is moving entirely in the right direction"

"And for this I give the greatest credit to American politics," he said

Schacht made these statements in an interview in his prison hospital room where he is serving an eight-year prison sentence given him by a German court for his support of nazism

He gets a new hearing in June and he says he is confident of acquittal this time

"I've got lots of new evidence," Schacht said "It is a fantastic injustice that I should be convicted of nazism when I actually risked my life from 1938 on to oppose Hitler I turned against him the minute I realized he wanted war"

Although he is 71 years old and has spent most of his prison term in the hospital, Schacht was alert and vigorous He was not confined to his bed

TALKS FREELY

Hospital attendants had warned he might refuse to talk because "he's been pretty cranky lately" But he talked freely, and was bitter only when discussing his conviction

Despite his age and long jail term, Schacht plainly harbors hope of returning to a position of financial influence

"I am looking already ahead of the Marshall plan" he said, "In my present situation I am not able to discuss this problem But I hope to get my rehabilitation soon Then I would be glad to help in economic fields

Schacht showed he was not very favorably impressed with the economic planning of the German officials now directing western Germany's effort to come back

American and British authorities think otherwise

"One of the main troubles with Europe now is its adoption of Schacht's barter system and financing" said one of the top American financial advisers "If it hadn't been for Schacht we would have a much easier time putting Germany back on her feet

"We are not interested in his ideas now or any other time—he is a vastly overrated man"

GETS PACKAGES

Schacht gets more food packages than any other prisoner in this Nazi prison camp Most come from Germans "Some of whom I don't even know," the old man said Hospital attendants said he got 30 food packages from Germans in the first four months of this year He also got three from the United States — two from utter strangers and two from Switzerland

Schacht said he shares his packages with other prisoners, and they share theirs, too"

He complained most about the lack of newspapers and magazines

"I don't get a single American or English newspaper in here" he said It's hard to keep up with world affairs from the few German newspapers I can get"

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills. —Adv

U. S. Railroads to Present Exhibit on Transportation

WASHINGTON—(U.P.)—Ewan Clague, commissioner of labor statistics, said Wednesday that the country appears to be well started on its biggest home building boom in history.

He told a news conference that 90,000 new homes were started in April. He said this was only 4,000 less than the 1947 monthly peak which was not reached until September.

"If April's trend is continued," Clague said, "we should have the biggest home building year in our history."

Clague, the government's top statistical official, also said:

1. Civilian employment is headed for a new peacetime record of 62,000,000 persons by next September. He said agriculture and construction are exerting a greater than seasonal push.

2. The General Motors corporation wage agreement with United Auto Workers (CIO-tying wage rates to living costs—is "the most precise" of its kind. He said it may start a new era in the making of wage agreements. He did not think that it will mean an immediate increase in prices generally.

3. The consumer price index will probably continue to rise slightly through next November. This could be prevented by a drop in food prices, he said, but the agriculture department has already indicated this is not to be expected this year.

Clague reported, meanwhile, that average weekly earnings of factory production workers dropped in April to $51.56. This was a 51 cents drop from the March figure. The fall resulted from a slight shortening of the work week to a flat 40 hours, steel shortages and the work stoppage in coal mines, he said.

Truman Stand on Civil Rights Classed as Vote-Wooing Action

JACKSON, Miss.—On a beautiful Sabbath morning a few weeks ago the Hon. Fielding L. Wright, governor of Mississippi, broadcast an oration on interracial relations which expressed with benign hypocrisy the attitude of the southern white man toward the Negro. He did not express the hypocrisy of the northern white man toward the Negro.

He did not even mention the sacred name of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, that valiant fighter for civic equality and against discrimination, segregation and ostracism.

Never in all his 12 years and a bit in the White House did Roosevelt appoint any Negro to any superior political job in the south and he did sign his name to a property deed at his real estate promotion at Warm Springs, Ga., forbidding forever the sale of his land to any Afro, or its rental or occupancy by any such.

In so doing the old joker showed his true attitude. In spite of these facts, well known to them, many southern men and women of the Roosevelt politico-spiritual adherency still insist that he, Roosevelt, was, somehow and inexplicably, pure and without fault, but they hold the dogged little Mr. Truman to blame for the program of proposals which has brought about the political revolution of the southern states rights group, solemnized recently in Jackson.

Roosevelt's program now thrust upon Truman would forbid discrimination against Negroes in employment, forbid impairment of the Negro's right to vote, which is no more than a wraith of a theory in the battleground states, compel the southern white to admit Negroes to the public schools of all degrees and to churches and movies and other resorts, and penalize white communities, even down to little unpainted, dirt road villages, for any informal violence offered any Negro accused or suspected of any rudeness.

Some of these penalties of the anti-lynching proposals are ingeniously ruinous. All this is offered in Truman's name, although Mr. Truman, as a gang or machine politician in an underworld town on the border, and as a child of unreconstructed Missouri rebels of the Civil war, never had a word to say on the subject until the time came for him to run for the presidency this year.

Until he was picked by Roosevelt with the advice and consent of Sidney Hillman in 1944 to be the Democratic candidate for vice president, Mr. Truman's social and political attitude toward Negroes was the conventional racial superiority friend's attitude of the border state county politician.

Called on to carry the target for the Democratic party this year, he agreed to the obvious.

★

The Democrats had to outbid the Republicans for the Negro vote in the big northern industrial centers where the voting Negroes live in ghettos. Otherwise they were doomed.

The Republicans, by political tradition the friends of the Negro race, are the party of Lincoln, who freed the slaves, and they have had a long record of friendly relations with the Negro politicians. Toward the Negro people their record has been mediocre.

Midnighter Roams Through History To Introduce New Yorkers of Old

MEET SOME OLD NEW YORKERS—A Brooklyn newspaperman once enjoyed roaming through Broadway from midnight to dawn. He haunted saloons and theaters and hobnobbed with the inhabitants of the show world to gather material for yarns. He did what B'way colyumists are now doing.

His name: Walt Whitman.

★

Ever hear of Rutherford Stuyvesant? His claim to fame is that he built New York's first apartment house in 1869 on East 18th St.

The house still stands.

★

About a century ago, a New York scrivener turned out a novel that was a financial failure. As a result, he gave up writing and took a job as inspector of customs on the Gansevoort Street pier. He held this job for two decades.

Herman Melville never lived to see his novel become one of the great classics—"Moby Dick."

★

Stephen Collins Foster came to New York in the 1850s, a newcomer to Tin Pan Alley. The total paid him during his lifetime for his all-timers (on the hit parade of the centuries) was about $16,000. A top Ascap rating now gets in one year the amount Foster got in a lifetime for his "Swanee River," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair," etc.

★

O. J. Gude, an advertising man, was the first to see the tremendous possibilities of electrical billboarding. He erected the initial mazda ad on B'way. He also coined "The Great White Way."

★

One of the bitterest Wall Street feuds involved J. P. Morgan and Andrew Carnegie. Despite their Hatfield-McCoy brawl these dollar-sign mighties consummated one of the biggest deals in financial history without speaking to each other directly. Carnegie sat in one room while Morgan squatted in another. An intermediary carried messages from one to the other until the deal was completed.

That transaction laid the basis for U. S. Steel.

★

One of the struggling poets in Greenwich Village (at the turn of the century) managed to live by scrubbing the floors of a saloon.

Years later he scaled the heights and became the English poet laureate—John Masefield.

★

Jim Fisk was one of the burg's most fabulous robber barons. Before the Civil War ended he chartered a fast boat and as soon as the last shot was fired—it sailed for London. There were no cables then . . . Fisk's ship reached England 5 days before a British ship arrived from the USA with the news that the war was over.

Fisk sold $5 million of worthless Confederate bonds on the London Exchange before Britishers discovered the Confederacy no longer existed.

Boy, 11, Kills Self Trying Shot at Bird

Sister Finds Youth Fatally Wounded

MT. GILEAD — An 11-year-old boy tried to shoot a bird last night and shot himself instead, dying a short time later as the family waited for the doctor to arrive, Coroner Frank Sweeney reported.

The accident occurred in the barn on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roth, one mile west of South Woodbury.

The coroner said that the boy, Samuel Roth, apparently tried to climb up on a crate in order to take better aim at the bird and the gun discharged, sending a bullet through his right temple.

The dying boy was found by a sister as she brought in the cows.

Samuel Roth was born in Arizona Oct. 29, 1936 and came here with his family nine years ago.

He leaves his parents; five brothers, Richard and Virgil of New Jersey and Gerald, Joseph and Paul at home; two sisters, Anna Lee and Lois, at home, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. P. F. Roth of Marion.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon in the Curl mortuary, Cardington. Burial will be in Union cemetery.

60 More Ask Fast Time

Plumbing Firm Changes Hours

Sixty more Mansfield citizens and the American Radiator and Standard Supply company today joined the hue and cry for daylight saving time.

The 60 persons in a petition asked city council to legislate "fast time." The plumbing supply company said it wouldn't wait. It will adopt "super-standard time June 1."

Company officials changed their operating hours from 8 a. m. to 4:45 p. m. to 7:30 p. m. to 4:15 p. m. The change was ordered "to provide some degree of service to our contractor customers in progressive daylight time towns that surround us and still be open for our Mansfield heating and plumbing contractors."

Ever since last Wednesday, when a city council committee promised to look into the matter, a flood of petitions and letters have come into the council office requesting "fast time." On March 22, by a vote of six to three, the measure was defeated.

Hour's Freedom Costs Two Years

An hour's freedom will cost a 24-year-old Mansfield reformatory inmate two years additional sentence.

Reformatory officials reported today that Ray Benson, 24, escaped from the institution's orchard about 10 a. m. yesterday, only to be apprehended an hour later by the Ashland police department and returned to his cell.

Benson was received on Nov. 26, 1947, from Lucas county to serve from one to 15 years for assault to rob. Two years' additional sentence is the usual penalty for apprehended escape.

SENIORS PLAY—Members of St. Peter's high school's senior class celebrated the near-end of their scholastic days yesterday. They turned the clock back to their kindergarten days, carrying stuffed animals to their classes and licking giant all-day suckers. A LA TIMES SQUARE—

Mansfield's entertainment section was a miniature New York Times Square last night. Seldom in the city's history has the area from Central park west along Park avenue presented a more festive appearance or more good-natured crowd. Long lines formed about the Madison theater before both the 7 and 9 o'clock shows of Vaughn Monroe's orchestra. Other long lines formed at Central park waiting to see the Navy's land-fleet display of war weapons. Sidewalks were crowded; streets even more crowded with automobiles.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—

Friends of James McConnell at the Globe Steel Abrasive company were congratulating him today on his 29th birthday.

McConnell has been working as a sales representative for the company for the past three years. He served four and one half years in the U. S. Army Air Force. He was discharged holding the commission of a major and is now the executive officer of the area Air Corps Reserve.

His favorite hobbies keep him on the land, in the air and on the water. They are flying, golfing and fishing. He is a member of the Rotary and University clubs, serving on the board of directors of Rotary. He is a member of the First Presbyterian church and the Mansfield Chamber of Commerce. With his wife and son and daughter, McConnell will observe the occasion quietly at their home, 638 Sloane avenue.

REBEL IN COLONY—

For years John W. Selby, chairman of Richland county's commissioners, has been mighty proud of his bee colony. But the other day Selby had his pride hurt—right on the end of his nose. A little black bee, probably a rebel in the sweet-tempered colony, did the dirty work.

Session Set For Friday

Vaughn Goes To Columbus

Mayor Roy W. Vaughn and seven other members of the executive council of the Ohio League of Municipalities will meet with Gov. Thomas J. Herbert at 2:30 p. m. Friday in Columbus in a move to get more financial aid for hard-up cities.

- While Mansfield is not facing financial difficulties, the city is willing to share any distribution of funds, Mayor Vaughn said.

Specifically, the OAC wants the governor to call a special session of the legislature to consider the distribution of 40 to 45 million dollars in undistributed sales taxes collections. The distribution would be made according to population.

SOME HARD HIT

Several Ohio cities, and Youngstown in particular are in dire financial straits and the latter faces cuts in the police and fire departments if aid is not forthcoming by fall.

Prior to meeting with the governor, Mayor Vaughn will attend a meeting of Ohio League of Municipalities. At noon the OAC and the OLM will hold a joint meeting to discuss merger of the two groups.

Mayor Vaughn is treasurer of the OAC and a first vice president of the OLM.

Girl Scouts Crown Champs

Girl Scouts of Troop 24 celebrated their last troop meeting of the season last night with a play-off of the troop's ping-pong tournament and a picnic supper at the home of their leader, Mrs. Sam Theaker, 679 Manchester road.

Sondra Barnett and Edythe Browarsky walked off as champions of the tournament with an unblemished record for the year.

Following the tournament wieners were roasted in the backyard and a picnic supper was served amidst the excited chatter of the girls who plan to attend Scout camp at Camp Niniwan next month.

Recently completing work on their transportation and communication badges, the girls were guests of TWA at the Mansfield airport where the ground-air communication was explained to them by Tom Ansel, station manager, and R. W. Rugg, assistant. A pleasant surprise was offered them when the Scouts were invited to enter the Cleveland-bound plane and watch mail taken aboard.

All-Night Party Plan Thrills Senior Class

Tomorrow will be a red letter day for members of the Senior high school graduating class.

They will get to stay out all night without reprimand from dad and mom.

The first all-night senior party in the school's history is scheduled to start with a dinner in the school cafeteria at 6:30 p. m., and close with a breakfast Saturday at the Richland Recreation Center.

The party will include a floor show, a dance, a free movie at the Madison theater, and several valuable gifts from Mansfield merchants.

A surprise floor show to last about a half hour is scheduled for the dance and there will be a television set to give the seniors an unexpected thrill.

At the close of the dance, buses, donated by the Yellow Stripe Cob company will augment the private cars which will be in front of the Senior high school gym ready to take seniors to the Madison theater. There "The Mating of Millie", starring Glenn Ford and Evelyn Keyes, will be shown as a special graduation feature.

The movie, arranged as a gift to seniors by Al Dennis, manager of the theater, is a romantic comedy, in keeping with the gay and light spirit of the evening's program.

A community sing reel, a Leon Errol two-reel comedy and an MGM cartoon will complete the two-hour program. In addition, there will be some comedy interjected in the movie program by members of the Senior high committee, all of it a surprise feature, and rizes will be given.

At the close of the show, buses and private cars will again pick up the seniors for an early breakfast at the Richland Recreation Center. Prizes will be given and the two grand prizes presented in a final award.

The grand prizes are a radio-phonograph and a leather traveling bag.

Arrangements for the party are in charge of Marilyn Beattie, as general chairman, and her committee. Parents of several of the seniors will be chaperons.

Youth Monopolizes Theater As 4,000 Acclaim Monroe

Young Mansfield twice jammed the Madison theater last night to give Vaughn Monroe and his orchestra an enthusiastic reception.

A half-filled theater had greeted the celebrated entertainers at a matinee. The total attendance for the three appearances was 4,000, Al Dennis, theater manager, said today.

The crowd was predominantly youth. Before both evening shows, lines nearly a block long extended up Park avenue west and down Walnut street waiting to be seated. Most of them were high school and other youths with their dates.

It was a complete show that Monroe presented. In addition to his orchestra, he introduced a series of acts that included dancing acrobats, his Moonmaids, Ziggy Talent, whose comic songs won loud applause; Betty Cusick, a tiny operatic singing hopeful, and the dancing stars, the Dunhills.

Monroe himself drew his biggest hand with his famous song, "Ballerina."

Mansfield's own Marjorie Selby gave an extra touch to the afternoon performance.

The fast-moving show lasted more than an hour and a half. At the end of the final night performance, Monroe and his cast of 35 artists boarded their bus for a week-long appearance in Cincinnati.

Flying In and Out of Mansfield

150 Fly Here For Sunday Breakfast

MANSFIELD MUNICIPAL AIRPORT—Sunday breakfast parties are increasing in popularity.

Last summer, nearly every Sunday saw groups of fliers coming to the airport for breakfast parties.

With the coming of spring, the flying parties have started again Last Sunday saw the largest group of the season. The Sky club was host to 150 fliers for a breakfast flight of approximately 60 ships.

One group of fliers arrived from Bluffton. It included one Stager Wing Beech, one Stinson Station Wagon, five cubs, one Taylorcraft, five Aeroncas and one N-2S-3. The group was organized by Harold Carey, operator of the Bluffton Flying Service.

Dr. M. Solomon, president of the Mahoning Valley Pilot's association at Youngstown, brought another group of 60 in Cubs, Stinsons and Taylorcrafts. After breakfast Dr. Solomon's group provided a little entertainment in the form of two parachute jumps made by Dick Padgett, 16-year-old student of Steve Gomore of Youngstown. This was Dick's second time to make such a jump.

Larry Watkins, operator at the Barberton Airport, demonstrated the new Luscombe Observer in a series of aerobatics. This is the first tandem airplane designed and built by the Luscombe company It was designed to Army Air Corps specifications for observation purposes.

★

RECENT VISITORS—J. F. England, operator at Norfolk, Va., stopped in at Mansfield Municipal Airport on his way back from Ft. Wayne where he picked up a surplus twin-engine Cessna. England had not had any previous experience in twin-engine aircraft, and because of questionable weather, preferred having a pilot with him who had twin-engine experience—so Wilbur Shafer, instructor at Richland Aviation, Inc., left with him the next morning, accompanying him as far as Washington, D. C., where he boarded a Capitol Airlines plane to Cleveland transferring there to T.W.A and arrived back in Mansfield at 3:30 that afternoon.

★

RECENT TRIP—Dr. Earl Mast, Dr. Myron S. Reed and Dr. P. O. Staker made a quick fishing trip to Algonquin Park, Lavielle Lake, Canada. They reported lots of rain in Canada and that there were probably still lots of fish there. They arrived at Mansfield at about 2 p. m. the same day that they left their fishing camp in Canada. The trip was made in the Reed-Mast Seabee.

Cabinet Job Crisis Ends In Finland

President Hedges On Red Demands

HELSINKI —(U.P.)— President Juho K. Paasikivi solved Finland's cabinet crisis with a fast reshuffle in which he did not yield completely to communist demands, but gave a cabinet job to the woman who is called the "brains" of Finland's Communist party.

Paasikivi yesterday named Mrs. Hertta Kuusinen Leino, 44, wife of Yrjoe Leino, communist former minister of interior who was ousted last week, as minister without portfolio. It was the ouster of Leino which set off the crisis and caused a wave of strikes.

At the same time, Paasikivi appointed as interior minister Eino Kilpi, who has been minister of education. Kilpi is not officially a member of the Communist party, and to that extent the Finnish president avoided compliance with communist demands that they retain the key interior spot.

But Kilpi recently left the Social Democratic party, and is now regarded as a member of the Popular Democratic party, which is another name for the Democratic union, which communists dominate. Thus the new interior minister could be regarded as at least sympathetic to the communist cause.

Kilpi told the United Press that "the Popular Democratic parliamentary group unanimously accepted this solution," indicating the communists would end their strike movement.

He said he had accepted the interior ministry "because this was the only way to have the whole business settled." He declined any statement on his plans for the new post.

Paasikivi cleared the way for appointment of Mrs Leino to the cabinet post by shifting Lennart Heljas, Agrarian leader, from assistant minister for social affairs to Kilpi's old place as minister of education.

Communist-led strikers, who had failed in their attempts at a sweeping general strike, held mass meetings during the 15-minute cabinet meeting in which the changes were made.

There still was some dissatisfaction among communist leaders over their failure to win an outright victory on their demands for retention of the interior ministry, which controls the Finnish police, but the strikes were expected to be ended quickly.

The crisis was touched off May 19 when the Finnish parliament passed a vote of censure against Leino on grounds that he had approved the extradition of ten Finns and ten foreigners from Russia in 1945 without cabinet sanction. Unofficially, Leino had been under fire for alleged attempts to make the Finnish police an instrument of communist policy.

Leino refused to resign, and was ousted from the cabinet by Paasikivi. The communist-led strike movement, which took out up to about 40 per cent of the country's workers, followed. The strike did not reach the proportions anticipated by the communists, however, and workers at some points had gone back to work even before the solution was reached.

Farmer Builds Own Television Set

By VIRGINIA LEE
(N-J Correspondent)

LUCAS—Television came to the Cloyd Culler farm, east of Lucas, a couple of months ago. Audiences have come in increasing numbers since then.

Culler built his own powerful set that brings in daily programs clearly and virtually transforms his home into the Cleveland stadium each day, or night, the Indians play at home.

"It's a good thing most of the televisioned games are at night or I'd never get my corn planted," joked the 50-year-old bachelor farmer who has made radio one of his hobbies for 35 years.

Friends and neighbors who enjoy his television reception long since have ceased to marvel at his genius. Some of them recall their first radio experiences years ago when they heard KDKA, the first station, on Culler's one-tube earphone set which also was home built. A few years ago he built a pipe organ in his home. Music is another of his hobbies.

28 TUBES IN SET

His television set has 28 tubes beside the picture tube. The commoner commercial outfits have six or eight tubes. His set has a total voltage of around 9,000 compared with 200 or 300 in an ordinary radio.

"Comparable commercial sets would cost at least $500, probably more," Culler asserted. He kept no accurate account of the expenses involved in building his set but approximated the total "between $200 and $300."

CLOYD CULLER . . . at his home-made television set

He incorporated the best features of several commercial sets in his instrument, he said, and read a week or so about the picture part of the process before he started his construction.

THREE WEEKS WORK

"I've worked and read about radios for years so I knew that part already," he explained. Spare time for only three weeks was required to build the set

"It worked the very first time I tried it and has been working ever since," he remarked.

Culler's farm, which lies at the Richland-Ashland county line, is on a county road and on the radio beam that airlines fly. Passing planes, old model automobiles that use antiquated spark plugs and close lightning cause the only interference perceptible in Culler's television reception

Cigaret tosser (left) and challenger swing equally wildly . . .

. . . but at fight's end, edge in weight seems to have counted.

SHE'S UP! SHE'S DOWN! ALL BECAUSE OF CIGARET IN SOUP—When a woman diner in a Detroit restaurant casually tossed a cigaret butt out the door, she probably had no thought of the repercussions that immediately followed. A chance gust of wind caught the glowing butt and deposited it in the plate of another feminine diner. The latter took immediate umbrage and direct violent action. Amateur Photographer Abe J. Jimenez happened along just then and his pictures indicate that the smaller challenger found her wrath ill-advised.

Board Cuts Grain Margin

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The Chicago Board of Trade Wednesday reduced margin requirements for grain speculators — with the government's blessing.

J. M. Mehl, chief of the Commodities Exchange Authority, said the government had no objections to the Chicago action, effective today, because he doubts there will be any "revival of unhealthy speculation."

Last fall when the markets were booming and this country sought more grain for relief shipments abroad, President Truman characterized grain speculators as "gamblers in human misery." But Mehl said "speculative fever" now seems to have disappeared.

FARE HIKE REQUESTED

DAYTON—(U.P.)—The City Railway company yesterday asked city commissioners for permission to increase its present nickel fare to 10 cents for cash fares or three tickets for 25 cents.

In One Family For Nine Decades

Mt. Gilead Paper 100 Years Old Today

MT. GILEAD — The Morrow County Sentinel, a weekly newspaper published here, today completed its one hundredth year of continuous publication. The paper was founded in 1848 by David Watt, shortly after the birth of Morrow County.

During the last 90 years, members of the Griffith family have published and edited the paper.

John W. Griffith came from the office of the Shield and Banner in Mansfield to work as a printer in the Sentinel office in the 1850s. He purchased the paper from William P. Dumble, the second owner, in March of 1857

Since that time Mr Griffith's son, Harry, and his grandson, the late Earl Griffith, former secretary of state of Ohio, have served as editors and publishers. At the present time, Mrs Earl Griffith is the publisher and Terry Griffith, a great grandson of John Griffith, is editor and manager

Letters of congratulations were received from Senator Robert Taft, Senator John Bricker, Gov. Thomas Herbert and Congressman Frederick C Smith

The first paper was called the Whig Sentinel. With volume 7, No. 1, the name was changed to The Mount Gilead Sentinel. On July 13, 1859, with volume 12, No. 1, the name was changed to Morrow Sentinel and the present name was adopted several months later.

THE WHIG SENTINEL

OLDEST COPY—The May 2, 1849, issue of The Whig Sentinel is the oldest copy of the 100-year-old Morrow County Sentinel now in existence. Terry Griffith (left) is editor and manager; his mother, Mrs. Earl Griffith, is publisher.

The Sentinel won prizes at the Ohio State Newspaper show both this year and last. In 1947 it took more prizes than any other weekly in the state.

It won first prize in the show in 1936 as "best in community news" and the judge who made the award said that it "should be a model and guide for every weekly publisher in the state" and that "subscribers get more for their money"

British Set For 'Purge'

Close Security Jobs To Reds, Fascists

LONDON —(AP)— The treasury has laid down the formal rules for Britain's purge of communist and fascist civil service workers from government security jobs.

A worker with a confidential assignment will be removed if he is a member of the communist party or a fascist organization, or associated with either "in such a way as to raise legitimate doubts about his reliability."

The cabinet member who heads the department will be the final judge.

A worker who is removed from a secret job will have the right of transfer to a non-secret branch in his own or another department. However, if he is engaged in such work that no non-secret jobs are available, he must resign or be discharged.

If a worker is separated from the payroll by either resignation or dismissal he loses all pension rights.

The treasury summary of the regulations said the procedure will be as follows:

The minister involved will consider evidence against a worker in his department and decide whether there is a prima facie case. If in his judgment there is, he will so advise the civil servant and give him particulars, such as the date of his alleged membership or nature of his association.

However, the treasury cautioned, "there will have to be limits to the information given, for he cannot be given such particulars as might involve the disclosure of the sources of the evidence."

If the civil service worker accepts the evidence, he will be replaced in his job. If he does not, he may go before a board of three advisers to the minister whose only function is to advise the minister on questions of fact.

7 Violators Draw Fines

Four speeders and three other traffic law violators were fined a total of $60 in municipal court yesterday.

Fines of $10 and costs were assessed against the following speeders: Glenn Phillips, Fredericktown; Donald Meistes, 1133 West Fourth street; Lloyd Braden, 26 Penn avenue, and Verne L. Williams, Mansfield, R. D. 2.

Fined $5 and costs were Luther Brook, 131 West Sixth street, for failure to have an operators' license, and Arnold E. Casto, Columbus, for having insufficient brakes.

Ritner O. Losey, Mt. Gilead, was fined $10 and costs for unsafe operation of a motor vehicle.

The case against Adolphus H. Brinson, 227 Miller street, charged with disregarding a traffic signal was continued until June 2.

Washington Blanks Indians With 3 Hits

Cuff Stuff

By Fred Tharp

(News-Journal Sports Editor)

UNTIL TODAY, the rotund Stuffer was a trifle sorry he missed the state track and field meet in Columbus last week end. . . . Track is one of this scribe's favorite sports and the lads were really in fine competitive shape in the finals. . . . However, the meet itself was rather poorly run. . . . It lacked the organization of the big relays—Mansfield, Ohio Wesleyan and Miami. . . . Loren Tibbals, acting as an official observer for the Ohio Association of Track Coaches, reports in his column:

"Newsmen covering the event were far from satisfied. Fans — nearly 10,000 of 'em — weren't too pleased. Many of the coaches were disgruntled and scores of the competing athletes were dissatisfied, too."

★

SOME OTHER scribes, who have seen all of the big meets this year, had this to say:

"Fritz Howell, Associated Press: I'd suggest a stenographer be employed to tabulate the returns of each event. She could make several copies—one for the announcer, one for the official records and others for the press table. There is entirely too much confusion and lack of organization to make the meet an attraction for spectators and efficient handling of the meet by the press is almost impossible."

John Barrington, International News Service: "When track enthusiasts ask why their sport doesn't catch on with the fans, they can find their answer in poorly organized affairs such as the state high school meet. Track can be a fine spectator's sport if said customers are considered in organizing the meet. Time lags must be overcome and colorful, informative PA (public address) announcing is vital."

Mike Lapine, Cleveland Press: "The failure of the official programs to contain or meet officials to know first names makes it very, very difficul to cover track meets. It gives the writer the impression that meets are being conducted for the sole pleasure of the officials. With the terrific fight that track has in competing for sports page space one would think that every effort would be made to make the information available."

John Henahan, Cleveland Plain Dealer: "The handling of the annual state track meet was nothing to be proud of. The meet was run poorly, allowed to drag and many of the officials preferred to be spectators rather than officials."

Elder Fischer, Akron Beacon-Journal: "Most room for improvement of the actual handling of the Ohio high school track championships could be in the preliminary events. Here it appeared there were too many officials in one event and, in some cases, not enough in others. There was too much last-minute drafting of officials."

MERRY HARRY Mehock, the boss man of the Mansfield relays, has most of these gimmicks whipped. . . . That's what makes the local cinderpath carnival the best in the country.

Tavern Baseball Nine To Play Three Games

The T & E Tavern baseball team will practice Friday at 5 p. m. at Liberty park.

The Taverns have three games scheduled over the week-end. They will engage Bellville in a doubleheader Sunday at Liberty park and play at OSR Monday afternoon.

Young Lefty Goes Down To 1st Loss

CHICAGO—(INS)—American league clubs dug deep into their pitching staffs for their best curve-ball artists as it was rumored throughout the circuit today that the Cleveland Indians are allergic to curves.

Facts to back up the statement were evident last night in Cleveland when the Tribe was able to garner only three hits off the slants of two Washington right-handers, Sid Hudson and Tom Ferrick, who paced the Nats to a 2-0 victory.

SIDE ARM CURVE

After the game Hudson, who gave up three hits in seven and two-thirds innings, said that he was "mixing them up. But it was my side arm curve that was most effective."

The defeat was the first under the lights for the Tribe this season and also the first shutout.

The loss was charged to Gene Bearden, his first against three victories, but the rookie southpaw permitted only one earned run, which was scored while the Indians executed a double play.

The tall Californian gave up eight hits, half of them to Mickey Vernon, who collected a double and three singles in as many trips to the plate.

Up until the eighth inning, the Tribe rapped Hudson for only one hit, a double down the left field line by Thurman Tucker, who accounted for two of the three hits.

Hank Edwards, pinch-hitting for Bearden in the eighth, singled to center and went to second on Tucker's single. Larry Doby walked, bringing up Manager Lou Boudreau with two men out. Ferrick then relieved Hudson and forced Boudreau to ground out to Eddie Yost at third who stepped on the bag forcing Tucker.

GET FIRST RUN

Tom McBride opened the second inning with a double and was advanced to third on a single by Vernon. Carden Gillenwater then hit into a double play scoring McBride with the first Washington run.

The Nats tallied their other marker in the seventh after two were out on a single by Vernon and an error by Allie Clark who was playing third base in place of Ken Keltner, who is nursing a bruise on his forearm.

The Indians are not scheduled today. They meet the Chicago White Sox in Chicago tomorrow. Bob Feller is slated to go to the mound for Cleveland.

Four Church Games Listed

The eleven team YMCA Church league gets underway with four games today at 6 p. m.

The schedule of games and umpire assignments follow: B'nai Brith vs. St. Matthew's, Prospect park, Marion Southward; First Congregational vs. St. Luke's, North Lake park, Andy Stash; United Brethren vs. First Methodist, Johns park, Bill Moody; First Presbyterian vs. Park Avenue Baptist, Liberty park, Mike Bosko.

The fifth first round game will be played Monday at Johns park when Four Square Gospel goes against St. Paul's.

Tygers End Sked

Senior high golfers will journey to Ashland tomorrow for their last golf match of the season against the A's linksmen. The Tygers have won six, lost two, and tied one.

Inter-City Softball League Schedule Released Today

Schedule of games for the North Central Ohio Inter-City softball league was released today by league headquarters.

Competition in the six-team league opens next Monday when Mt. Vernon plays at Willard. Tiffin plays at Mansfield Gorman-Rupp Tuesday and a pair of games are listed Wednesday, Gorman-Rupp playing at Marion and Willard at Ashland.

2 Under Par In Golf Loop Competition

Joe Mayer, Mansfield pro-golfer, shot a one-under-par 35 over the Possum Run course yesterday, but was unable to shake his amateur teammate, Jim Musille. Musille also shot a 35 as the two paced Westinghouse league golfers.

Ideal, Farm Tools Tie For Loop Lead

One hotly contested game and three lopsided scoring fracases was the story of Industrial softball league play yesterday.

Mansfield Plumbing and Heating pushed over two runs in the bottom half of the sixth inning to defeat the Telephone company, 5-4, in the best game of the day. In the slugging bees, Ideal Electric trounced Mansfield Tire, 15-4, Cole Tool and Die smothered Tappan Stove, 12-1, and Farm Tools whitewashed Dominion Electric, 18-0.

Ideal and Farm Tools are now tied for the league lead with two straight wins while the Plumbers are a half game behind. The veteran Stub Winebrenner struck out 12 and allowed only two hits in pitching the Toolmen to victory.

E. Wichey, Ideal, and B. Kanz, Tappan, each had four hits while Winebrenner picked up three.

American Trio Advances In British Golf

SANDWICH, England — (INS) — Three Americans kept the Stars and Stripes flying victoriously in the British amateur championships today.

Mike Turnesa, the swarthy little defending champion from White Plains, N. Y., Dick Chapman of Pinehurst, N. C., and Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., all scored impressive victories.

Bob Sweeney, the New Yorker who spends most of his time in London, bowed out to a Welshman, S. B. Roberts, one-up.

Chapman set a new course record for the outgoing nine as he eliminated the Scottish champion, Hamilton, McNally, 9 and 7. He toured those first nine holes in 29, five under par figures, to lop two strokes off the best previous mark for the distance.

Draw Up Skeds

MADISON, Wis. —(UP)— Big nine coaches and athletic director began drawing up football schedules for 1950 and 1951 today as the conference's annual spring meeting got underway.

Conference Crowns To Be Decided

By CHARLES EINSTEIN

CHICAGO—(INS)—Western conference championships in four major categories—track, baseball, tennis and golf—are to be contested over the week end, with Ohio State, Michigan and Illinois the major villains of the piece.

Ohio is favored to repeat its indoor track and field conquest in the outdoor spectacle at Madison, Wis. Michigan and defending champion Illinois are rated second best.

In baseball, defending champion Illinois leads runner-up Michigan by one game. The Illini play at third-place Ohio State tomorrow and Saturday while favored Michigan is greeting Northwestern at Ann Arbor, Mich.

END CAMPAIGNS

These games will end the campaigns of all teams involved, and although Michigan is in mathematical line for exclusive possession of the title, it will take two Michigan triumphs and two Illinois defeats (or corresponding quirks in the weather) to do it.

Two Illinois defeats are quite unlikely, due mainly to the fact that Illini lefthander Marv Rotblatt, who is possibly the best college pitcher in the country, will hurl one of the games.

Should Michigan, through some wild-eyed combination of circumstances, manage to filch both the track and baseball titles, the Wolves will be the first in Big Nine history to put those crowns behind football and basketball honors.

Polo Grounds Jinx Cuts Cards

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Life in the Polo grounds is just a series of nightmares for Manager Eddie Dyer of the St. Louis Cards. As far as he's concerned they can bring back Polo any day.

All last year his favored Red Birds fluttered and played dead when they hit New York. It looks like more of the same in 1948.

Dyer's latest experience was enough to try the patience of a saint. His league-leaders were rolling along last night behind a nice 7-2 lead with Howie Pollet, the unbeaten star of both leagues, doing the pitching. It looked like money in the bank.

Then the Giants started to break out of their hitting slump. They hit and hit and hit some more. Before the eighth inning was over, eight runs had crossed the plate and the 7-2 lead had changed to a 10-7 deficit.

Bobby Thomson doubled and singled for two hits in the big inning as the Giants chased Pollet, George Munger and Gerry Staley before coasting to a halt for Ken Burkhart. Pollet escaped his first defeat because Dyer called in Munger at the first sign of serious trouble.

Across the river in Flatbush, Brooklyn customers were more concerned with immediate problems. Outfielder Pete Reiser and Catcher Bruce Edwards were lost for an indefinite period and the club blew another.

Shortly before midnight the Dodgers again plunged into the cellar as the result of their 4-1 loss to Chicago and Cincinnati's 8-5 win over Boston.

Willard Ramsdell, the knuckle ball pitcher just recalled from Mobile, was nicked for homers by Bill Nicholson and Hal Jeffcoat in the Dodger defeat.

Hank Sauer's 10th homer helped Cincinnati sneak out of last place. The Reds routed Warren Spahn, Boston's southpaw ace, to come from behind.

Once again the American league race is all snarled up in percentages. Cleveland, actually trailing Philadelphia by a half game in a strict application of the won and lost principle, still holds first place by two percentage points.

Cleveland was shut out for the first time this season, bowing to Washington, 2-0.

Philadelphia combed the Chicago White Sox, 7-1, in the afternoon behind Joe Coleman's five-hit pitching. It was the fourth straight victory for the rebounding A's.

Detroit "walked" to a 7-3 nod over the New York Yankees when the Yank pitchers passed 10 men. Although touched for 12 hits, Dizzy Trout took the decision from Spec Shea.

It took a double error in the tenth by Catcher Less Moss to enable Boston's Red Sox to down the St. Louis Browns, 5-3. Sam Mele doubled in the tenth and scored when Moss, fielding Dom DiMaggio's attempted sacrifice, fumbled the ball and then threw wildly past first base.
